Forrest Wilson was born and raised in Broward County, Florida. After graduating from the University of Florida, Forrest worked as field organizer for a Florida state senate race and then for a private law firm. Following this, Forrest earned his Juris Doctor from Florida International University, College of Law. During law school, Forrest interned with local legal aid societies in South Florida and the Broward County State Attorney's Office. While attending FIU, Forrest joined the trial team where he honed his trial and oral advocacy skills. Forrest's time on the trial team culminated in a first-place finish and best advocate award at the 2022 Chester H. Bedell Memorial Mock Trial Tournament and regional championship at the Student Trial Advocacy Competition sponsored by the American Association of Justice.

After passing the bar, Forrest joined the Broward office of Vernis & Bowling practicing insurance defense on first and third-party insurance claims.

While not in the office, Forrest enjoys watching movies, spending time with his family, and supporting South Florida sports teams.
